Social 20-1 Chapters 3 & 4 Study Guide

Vocabulary/Terms

Chapter 3: To what extent should people reconcile their contending nationalist loyalties?
Chapter 4: To what extent should people reconcile their contending nationalist and non-nationalist loyalties?

Key Vocabulary/Terms

Main Ideas

- Different views and perspectives exist with respect to reconciling nationalist and non-nationalist loyalties including: First Nations – Métis – Inuit – Quebecois
- Contending/competing loyalties can affect the choices people make
- Multiculturalism has both advantages and disadvantages
- Contending/competing nationalist and non-nationalist loyalties may create conflict
- Some people have attempted to reconcile conflicting nationalist loyalties (Exemplar Gratia: Aboriginal Peoples)
- Aboriginal land claims are the greatest source of conflict between aboriginals and government

Skills by Question

1. Analyze two sources in order to identify an issue related to multiculturalism in Canada
2. Analyze two points of view regarding multiculturalism in Canada
3. Identify conclusions based upon the evidence of a source
4. Identify generalizations regarding First Nations based upon the evidence of a source
5. Categorize non-nationalist loyalties based upon four sources
6. Categorize 4 examples of loyalties
7. Identify an example of reasonable accommodation from amongst four sources
8. Identify a factor that negatively affects the national identity of a society
9. Identify an issue raised by two sources – a written source and a political cartoon
10. Analyze the point of view of a source regarding Québec separation and categorize it
11. Analyze a source regarding language in Quebec in order to identify a supporter or supporters of a point of view
12. Analyze a source regarding Bill 101
13. Identify an inference based upon three sources including a bar graph
14. Analyze four sources in order to identify the best example of a conflicting loyalty
15. Analyze four sources in order to identify the best example of alienation
16. Analyze a source in order to identify a nationalist point of view
17. Analyze a source reflecting a Quebecois point of view in order to identify an inference based upon the source
18. Identify the long term consequences of an event described in a source
19. Identify the consequences of an event affecting Inuit based upon two sources
20. Analyze a photo in order to identify an inference or inferences